Stephen Robertson

Limerick

There was an old Fellow of Girton who always made love with his shirt on. Saying "Now that I'm old, I do feel the cold and my breathing is rather uncertain."

This poem is reprinted from Not Averse, the Girton Poetry Group website, at http://poetry.girton.cam.ac.uk