PENTHOUSED

on unlimited credit
and safely cocooned
above the unlaundered,
we try to be always.....

BOUTIQUED BELOW

we paid cash to create
debt collateral
living the high life on credit, though credited widely with wealth.

mortgaged untenably,
squeezed with the kids in this flat
overlooking the yard,
card-credit controls
constraining whatever we do.

in arrears

ROOM TO LET

now for new citizens' rights: against rain, wind or snow there is free cardboard for roof, blanket and mattress there is universal cardboard you would not credit the cardboard in this hole, still awaiting the credit that's called universal -

hark to the cry of the bailiff...
